The Faithful Departed

Year's Mind

Loving and merciful God, you sent your Son into the world that all might have life through him: we pray for the whole family of nations.
We pray for all who endure poverty, starvation, oppression or war; we pray for peace between nations and for a just sharing of the earth's resources, that we may live as sisters and brothers, children of the same God.
God of love, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

You sent your Son to be the Saviour of the world: we pray for your worldwide church.
We pray for all who bring alive the Scriptures, for missionaries, teachers, theologians, writers and preachers;
we pray for unity among Christians, that together we may proclaim the gospel and live as sisters and brothers, children of the same God.
God of love, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

You sent your Son into the world that we might know your love for all people: we pray for this community.
We pray for our families and friends, those we meet in our daily lives, for the hungry and homeless and those without work; we pray for a community that values and cares for all its members, that we may live as sisters and brothers, children of the same God.
God of love, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

You sent your Son into the world to heal the sick, console the sorrowing and satisfy the hungry with good things:
we pray for all in need.
We pray for all who are lonely and sad, for those in grief or despair and for the sick;
we pray for compassion and generosity to respond to the needs of others, that we may live as sisters and brothers, children of the same God.
God of love, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

You sent your Son into the world that we might have eternal life: we remember your faithful people who rest in your eternal love.
We give thanks for Philip and all who have opened your Scriptures to others, for all who have carried your good news to distant places and all who have shared your gospel with those close at hand.
In life and in death may we follow your saints, that with our sisters and brothers of every generation, we too may abide for ever in your love.
God of love, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

As we, with one voice offer our prayers, we place on the altar the names of those for whom our prayers have been asked, we pray:

Hear the prayer of your Church, O God, and fulfil the work you have begun in the resurrection of your Christ;
so that through the gospel
your truth may be made known, and through the witness of your people
the world may see your salvation.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The intercessions are placed upon the Table as a reminder to us of our heart-felt intentions being offered to our loving Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord
