

Prayer Requests

Please kneel or be seated.

Baptisms

Most merciful God, the generosity of your love is astounding to us: in confidence and trust we bring to you our prayers for your people.

Recently Baptised:

Angus and Sophie Waites

Your love reaches out to all your children: hear our prayers for your world and all its people.

We pray for leaders of nations, for all in positions of authority and responsibility;

for the hungry, the homeless and the dispossessed;

for all victims of hatred, violence or injustice.

Teach us how to love each other as you love us, without distinction of race or colour.

Ever-loving God, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

The gift of your Spirit is for all your children: hear our prayers for your church, for all who believe in you and for all who long to know you.

We pray for all religious leaders, theologians, pastors, teachers and administrators;

for ecumenical and inter-faith dialogue;

for all victims of religious fanaticism or intolerance.

Teach us to love each other as you love us, without regard to creed or practice.

Ever-loving God, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

You came among us, born into a human family: hear our prayers for the people of this community, for our families, our friends and for ourselves.

We pray for civic leaders and for all who advance the welfare of this community;

for all in relationships that are bitter, violent or destructive;

for the unemployed and all who are victims of economic greed.

Teach us to love each other as you love us, welcoming both friend and stranger.

Ever-loving God, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

You lived among us, sharing with us our griefs and pains: hear our prayers for the sick and all who suffer.

We pray for all who spend their lives bringing care and comfort to others; for those in sadness, anxiety, despair or pain; for all who are forgotten, unheard, unvalued, unloved.

Teach us to love each other as you love us, caring for both the vulnerable and strong.

Ever-loving God, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

The Faithful Departed

Year's Mind

You laid down your life for those you loved: we remember your friends of every place and age.

We remember those who have given their lives that others may live, the saints and martyrs and all your faithful people.

Teach us to love each other as you have loved us, that following your commandments, we may be numbered among your friends and abide for ever in your love.

Ever-loving God, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

As we, with one voice offer our prayers, we place on the altar the names of those for whom our prayers have been asked, we pray:

Hear the prayer of your Church, O God,
and fulfil the work you have begun
in the resurrection of your Christ;
so that through the gospel
your truth may be made known,
and through the witness of your people
the world may see your salvation.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The intercessions are placed upon the Table as a reminder to us of our heart-felt intentions being offered to our loving Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord
