Year's Mind

Brian Saffrey (27th July 2022)

Please kneel or be seated.

God our Creator, we give you thanks that you disclose yourself to us in all the mysteries of your creation.

We pray for your beautiful, broken world:
for all who live in places of war, disease,
degradation or famine;
for leaders of nations and for all who work to alleviate the misery of others.

As you fed your people of old, feed today your people, who hunger for food, for security, for wisdom, justice and peace.

Loving God, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

God our Redeemer, we give you thanks that you come to us in the person of Jesus, feeding us with your body and blood.

We pray for your church:
for those who eat at your table and those
excluded from your fellowship;
for the people of this parish and for all who
minister here in your name,

As you fed your people of old, feed today your people, who hunger to know your good news of forgiveness and grace.

Loving God, in your mercy

hear our prayer.

God our Companion, we give you thanks that you come to us in the joy of human relationships.

We pray for all with whom we share our lives;
for our families, our friends and those with whom
we work and play;
for the people of this community, for the homeless, and the unemployed.

As you fed your people of old, feed today your people who hunger for dignity, acceptance and love.

Loving God, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

God our Healer, we give you thanks that you come to us in the dark and lonely places of our lives.

We pray for all in trouble or distress:
for the friendless and unwanted and those who
mourn the loss of loved ones:
for those whose bodies ache, whose minds are confused, whose spirits are sad,

We pray for the sick and the dying and for all who minister to them.
As you fed your people of old, feed today your people, who hunger for hope and healing, comfort and consolation
Loving God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

God our Lover, we give you thanks that in life and in death you hold us in your embrace.
We give you thanks for all who have loved and followed you.
As you fed your faithful people of old, feed us today,
who hunger for your presence, and at our life's end bring us, with all your saints, to eat at your heavenly table.
Loving God, in your mercy
hear our prayer.

As we, with one voice offer our prayers, we place on the altar the names of those for whom our prayers have been asked, we pray:

God, our light,
strengthen in our hearts
the faith kindled by your Spirit and illuminate our minds by your word, so that we may grow daily in faithfulness to you
and love of one another.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The intercessions are placed upon the Table as a reminder to us of our heart-felt intentions being offered to our loving Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord
